

DEER PARK JUNIOR FIRE DEPARTMENT

The juniors are made up of teenage boys and girls that are 13 to 17 years old. They have officers, a Captain and two Lieutenants just as the regular companies do. Members are trained to maintain discipline, professionalism and respect. It serves as a mean of personal development for the youth. Training activities allow the teenagers to gain firefighting and EMS experience. They participate in department functions such as parades, work details, fire prevention open house and drills with the department. When a junior becomes 18 years of age, they are eligible to become a member of the department.
